FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Novelist Heavyweight Agrees To Adaptation of New 3D Sci-Fi Feature

Hong Kong - 7 October 2009 – Yesterday, acclaimed and best-selling science-fiction novelist, Alan Dean Foster, confirmed his involvement with the official movie-adaptation novel for the new US$10 million budget, fully 3D, live-action sci-fi epic FUTURE FIGHTERS to be shot in Hong Kong during summer 2010 and released worldwide the following year. Being billed as "a relationship-charged, action-packed, mecha fest", sci-fi fans will want to look out for both the movie itself and Foster's accompanying novelization when each are released to the world in 2011.

Multi-award winning, New York Times best-selling author Alan Dean Foster can be contacted at adf@alandeanfoster.com. His official website is at <http://www.AlanDeanFoster.com>. The official movie website for FUTURE FIGHTERS is <http://www.FutureFightersMovie.com>, and is being produced by Hong Kong-based company Agog Films Productions (<http://www.agogfilms.com>).

Having written over one hundred novels spanning both the sci-fi and fantasy genres, including both major sci-fi movie novelizations and his own original works, Foster is perhaps most widely known for his work on Hollywood blockbuster movie franchises such as Alien, Star Trek, Star Wars, Terminator and Transformers. Regarding his attraction to FUTURE FIGHTERS, Foster explains "This production looks a lot of fun, with the producers actually having a grasp of solar system astronomy... something which we don't see too often coming out of Hollywood. That, and seeing an SF film that deals with Western, Chinese and Japanese culture and ideology many years in our future... well, it's about time!" Producer Orlebar adds "As a huge fan of his works ever since I was a kid, it's a real honor welcoming Mr Foster to this project. Announcing his joining as a crucial part of our core filmmaking team reaffirms once again our commitment to finding only the very finest and most suited professionals from around the world to deliver the best movie we can and make something truly fantastic."

Amongst his own original works, Alan Dean Foster's "Commonwealth" series has been running for over thirty-seven years. Outside writing, Foster is a keen explorer, having travelled extensively to many far-away and exotic parts of the globe, with filmed footage from these travels appearing on both American television and the BBC.

Founded in 2007, Agog Films Productions is one of Hong Kong's newest and most dynamic film production houses, specializing in quality independent movie-making with the freshest global talents, as well as in related comic and video-game development.
