FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

World Premiere in LA for Prolific London Thespian's Movie Debut

Los Angeles, California, USA – 21st July 2008 – British stage actor Bene't Lynton stars alongside kung fu master Gordon Liu (KILL BILL) to take the lead in his debut movie role in the new international co-production, the independent film LOST IN LOVE, premiering in Hollywood this month.

As part of this year's LA/NY Bi-Coastal Film Festival, LOST IN LOVE is heading the program in LA on 21st July at Laemmle Sunset 5, 8000 Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood, 90046 (Tel. 323-848-3500). The official movie website is at <http://www.LostInLoveMovie.com> and the official Film Festival homepage is at <http://www.nyfilmvideo.com>. Interviews with the stars or crew, and tickets for the world premiere can be requested through the Director/Producer Guy Orlebar at his details above.

One of production company Centrestage London's mainstay actors, Mr Lynton has just this month completed heading the cast of the musical THE FIX at the Bridewell Theatre, London (under the pseudonym Benedict Garrett). With a professional acting career began as a child, and with star roles in the recent London musicals WEST SIDE STORY and BAT BOY, his lead role as the hero in LOST IN LOVE marks Mr Lynton's first venture into the glamorous world of Hollywood.

LOST IN LOVE is the highly autobiographical directorial debut of British-born, Hong Kong-based filmmaker Guy Orlebar, concerning a young Englishman who must travel to Hong Kong, where East meets West, to search for his love and the true meaning of life. Starring also Hong Kong kung fu master Gordon Liu (KILL BILL), with leading actresses from Asia and global musical talent, this is a love story of truly international proportions.

How far would you go for love?
