FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hong Kong Artists Rock Their Way To World Premiere in Hollywood

Los Angeles, California, USA – 21st July 2008 – This month the Hong Kong rock music scene will get a double boost in America as the new international co-production, the independent movie LOST IN LOVE, premieres in Los Angeles with music from the contemporary chart topping rock duo Purple Nine and a cameo from the Asia all-time number one rock band Beyond member, Yip Sai Wing.

As part of this year's LA/NY Bi-Coastal Film Festival, LOST IN LOVE is heading the program in LA on 21st July at Laemmle Sunset 5, 8000 Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood, 90046 (Tel. 323-848-3500). The official movie website is at <http://www.LostInLoveMovie.com> and the official Film Festival homepage is at <http://www.nyfilmvideo.com>. Interviews with the musicians or stars and crew of the movie, can be requested through the Director/Producer Guy Orlebar at his details above. The official homepage of Purple Nine is at <http://www.purple-nine.net>.

Purple Nine, comprising of Tang Ming Fai and Wong Wo Hing, provide their guitar masterpiece, the hit song Ku Wu Chang, to the key Lan Kwai Fong scene within the movie; shot entirely on location in Hong Kong's most famous bar area; whilst Yip Sai Wing steals an earlier scene playing a seasoned cabaret club barman sharing his views on life, love and music with the movie's love-forlorn hero.

LOST IN LOVE is Guy Orlebar's highly autobiographical directorial debut, concerning a young Englishman who must travel to Hong Kong, where East meets West, to search for his love and the true meaning of life. Starring also Hong Kong kung fu master Gordon Liu (KILL BILL), and actors from UK, Japan and Hong Kong, this is a love story of truly international proportions.
How far would you go for love?
